

McKINLEY'S CONDITION SERIOUS.

A Decidedly Hopeful Bulletin However, Was Issued This Afternoon—The Patient's Pulse Makes a Phenomenal Fall.

DR. RIXLEY AUTHORITY FOR STATEMENT THAT THE CRISIS HAS PASSED

Assassin Identified as Leon Czolgosz, Expresses the Hope That His Victim Will Die—Insists He Was Alone in the Awful Deed.

Mr. McKinley's Pulse Dropped From 146 to 136 in Three Hours but Temperature Climed to 105 This Afternoon—Surgeons Are Afraid of Bloodpoisoning, Yet Hopeful—One Bullet Not Removed, May Use X Rays--Telegrams of Condolence--Stocks Slump--Prisoner Slept Soundly--Story of Crime That Has Shocked the World.

BUFFALO, Sept. 7.—At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the surgeons finished a thorough examination of President McKinley's wounds, finding that the bullet which entered the abdomen touched no vital part. They are hopeful and see no reason under the present conditions why President McKinley shall not recover. The second bullet has not as yet been located.

This afternoon Dr. Rixley is authority for the statement that the crisis is passed. In three hours President McKinley's pulse has made a phenomenal fall from 146 to 136.

The members of the cabinet gathered at the President's bedside. A report is on the street that Mr. McKinley is dying, but the wire from the bedside is silent. The temperature has gone up to 105. Outside doctors say that the end would not come so soon.

Blood Poisoning is Feared.

BUFFALO, Sept. 7.—The following bulletin was issued by the President's physician at 12 o'clock noon, today:

"There is no decided change in the President's condition since the last bulletin. His pulse is 136, temperature 102 and respiration 28."

At noon the surgeons announced they feared blood poisoning. In that case they say, the President would die. The bullet has lodged in the muscles of the back, causing inflammation. The police fear a riot when this announcement is made public and are calling out the reserves.

The following bulletin was issued at 12:15 p. m.:

"The President's condition remains unchanged from last night. At 12:15 p. m. the doctors reported his pulse to be 136, temperature 102, respiration 28." Senator Lodge arrived at the Milburn home at 12:30. He was greeted on the steps by Mrs. McKinley and after a brief conversation both sat down on the seats on the veranda along with several other persons. Mrs. McKinley chatted pleasantly with those present for several minutes. This is a very reassuring sign.

Assassin Hopes His Victim Will Die.

BUFFALO, SEPT. 7.—Czolgosz today said of President McKinley: "You know the G. A. R. encampment is to be in Cleveland next week, and I would certainly have caught him there had I failed here." Throughout his conversation Czolgosz appeared calm and self-possessed.

Czolgosz said this morning: "I shot him for an example and I hope he dies. The man who succeeds must not be the slave of capital. He will perish." He insists he was alone in the deed. He planned it himself. The prisoner says he came from Cleveland Tuesday. The police are keeping his confession as secret as his person.

Mrs. McKinley has received messages of sympathy from all the great sovereigns of Europe and from many other distinguished foreigners.

SECOND BULLET

Perforated Both Walls of the Stomach.

"I Shot Him Because I am an Anarchist."

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Dr. Roswell Park has issued the following bulletin: The President's condition is safe. He passed the operation in good shape. The bullet was probed for, but was not found. It is probably in the muscles of his back. The intestines are not injured. Mrs. McKinley bore up well, and greeted the President on her arrival and he seemed to be benefited by her presence.

Police Commissioner Cooper has just given out that Neimann lives in Cleveland, not Detroit.

The attending surgeons say that the second bullet perforated both walls of the stomach. It has not been found and is believed to be in the stomach. The wound was sewed up and is not necessarily fatal. Neimann said to S. R. Ireland, in charge of U. S. secret service: "I shot him because I am an anarchist, and only did my duty." The President has been removed to Milburn's residence on Delaware avenue and he stood the journey well. It is impossible at this time to tell whether the last bullet, which has not been extracted will or will not prove fatal.

GUARD

Of Fourteenth Infantrymen Around the House Where the Stricken President Lies.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—President Milburn's house is now and has been since the President's removal there surrounded by a guard of 14th regular infantrymen under command of Lieut. Price, of Fort Porter. The crowd in front of the house at an early hour this morning was quite large and was constantly augmented.

The military and police naturally made the scene impressive but their presence seemed unnecessary for persons who gathered in the streets and upon the surrounding lawns were those in sympathy and moist eyes were visible everywhere in the crowd. It was not curiosity, it was grief.

SLEPT SOUNDLY

Did the Assassin After Being Put Through the Sweat Box—Prisoner Strongly Guarded.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Leon T. Czolgosz is 28 years old, medium build, light hair and complexion and his face shows his Polish nationality. He was born in Detroit and now calls Cleveland his home.

When he told the officials about himself, he was in a high nervous state. When he made his confession he shook like an aspen leaf and many times had to stop so as to regain enough nerve with which to proceed. When asked to sign the confession it was only with greatest difficulty that he directed the pen over the paper.

The police officials and the men from the prosecuting office put the prisoner through a most severe examination and it would seem have taken the nerve of a calm man who had not committed such a terrible crime to stand up before the constant firing of questions.

Czolgosz was as white as a sheet and when any member of the party addressed a question to him he would look elsewhere but at the questioner.

It was just about 1 o'clock this morning when the conference was closed. Czolgosz was taken up the stairway leading from Superintendent of Police Bull's private office to the "Freezer" on the third floor of the headquarters building. The officers who had charge of him were nearly compelled to carry him, so weak was his condition. He was taken to a cell and as he entered this he sank upon the cot in a state of total collapse. He remained on the cot for half an hour, while the guards watched him closely. He did not stir however, during this time. At the end of the hour mentioned he slowly arose and divested himself of some of his clothing and got into bed. The would-be assassin remained awake until shortly after 2 o'clock, when he went to sleep and slept soundly. The assassin slept until 4:30 o'clock this morning.

After awakening he asked for a drink of water. This was given to him and after remaining awake a short time he again went to sleep. At 6:30 o'clock this morning he was still sleeping soundly.

It was not known at the police station this morning what would be done with the assassin during the day, but it was thought that he will be kept in his cell until the outcome of President McKinley's injuries are known more definitely. It is not probable that he will be arraigned in court for a preliminary hearing during the day

At 6 o'clock this morning the policemen stationed at the approaches to the station where Czolgosz is confined were changed. A strong guard will be maintained about the building.

Had Warned President.

Paterson, N. J., Sept. 7.—Ex-Attorney General Griggs says that he warned President McKinley a number of times against going without a bodyguard. The President laughed at him and said he had supreme confidence in the people.

Paterson Anarchists.

Paterson, N. J., Sept. 7.—Paterson anarchists know of no reason of the attempt to kill Mr. McKinley. They say they do not know Czolgosz. Chief anarchist Estave says: "McKinley was too noble a man to be murdered."

STOCKS SLUMP

From Four to Five Points on Account of the President's Injury—Trying to Avert Panic.

New York, Sept. 7.—As a result of the Presidential tragedy stocks slumped from four to five points this morning. Eminent financiers headed by J. P. Morgan, met and they will stem the tide if any attempt is made by the bears to raid the market. Plenty of money is pledged to carry on any necessary effort to avoid a panic.

New York, Sept. 7.—Stocks rallied after the first half hour of trading and there seems no danger of further trouble.

BULLETINS

Issued Each Hour—People Kept Two Blocks Away From House—The Assassin's Accomplishes.

Buffalo, September 7.—Bulletins will be issued each hour showing the President's condition. All traffic and all people are kept two blocks away from the Milburn residence. Members of the cabinet and Vice President Roosevelt are hastening to the President's bedside and this gave rise to the rumor that his case was hopeless.

Under the constitution, in case of the death or disability of the President, the vice president assumes all the executive functions.

The police are looking for two accomplices of Czolgosz, one a man who accompanied Czolgosz to the President and the other a handsomely dressed woman who rushed up to the guard before the evening and exclaimed "Did you hear a whistle just now?" Then she disappeared. Czolgosz is closely guarded and only the police know just where he is.

Hurrying to Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 7.—A message was received from Abner McKinley, brother of the President early this morning saying that he was on the way to the bedside of his brother as fast as the train could bring him.

Courier Journal's Comment.

Louisville, Sept. 7.—The Courier-Journal (Dem.) says: "The attempt to destroy McKinley was an attempt to destroy the form of government which they have chosen for themselves and given their blood and devotion to maintain. Is it not time that this foreign riff-raff and their domestic fellow conspirators who have taken refuge under our free government only to plan and direct destruction of all government, be crushed?"

RUMOR

That the Would-be Assassin Was Once Employed in Newark—Inquiry Made at Mills.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning the Newark correspondent of a Cincinnati evening paper received a telegram asking what was known here of a report that the Buffalo assassin had once worked in a Newark Wire mill.

A few minutes later the local correspondent of a Cleveland evening newspaper received a similar inquiry, saying that it was reported that Nieman or Czolgosz had once been employed in one of the Newark steel mills.

Advocate reporters made inquiry at the Reed Wire Cloth works, the Jas. E. Thomas foundry, at the Newark Iron and Steel works and elsewhere but at no place in the city could information regarding the assassin be obtained.

Mr. Reed of the Wire Cloth factory said: "I have been here twelve years and no such man has ever worked in this institution."

The James E. Thomas company and Mr. J. R. Goldsborough kindly looked over their payrolls for the past twenty months but no such name as Czolgosz or Nieman appeared on the books.

A reporter called at Scheidler's and McNamara's shops but no such a man as Nieman or Czolgosz had worked there for years.

A call at the B. & O. elicited the same information.

Working on a Clue.

Cleveland, Sept. 7.—The Central Station detectives today believe they have a clue to the anarchist conspiracy to kill President McKinley. They have a man in the sweat box who either said Friday noon that Mr. McKinley had been killed or that he knew the name of the man who had spread such a report. An eighth precinct police officer heard such a remark early yesterday afternoon and does not believe it was simply a coincidence.

Punishment Considered.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—The question of Czolgosz' punishment is already considered. United States District Attorney says if the President recovers the crime will be assault with intent to kill, the maximum penalty being 20 years. He cannot be tried for high treason, or court-martialed, though the President is commander-in-chief of the army and navy.

SYMPATHETIC

Expressions Not Confined to Party or Creed—The News as Received at Canton.

Canton, O., Sept. 7.—Canton in general passed a sleepless night. Citizens of all classes remained on the streets near telephone, telegraph and newspaper offices to get the very latest news from the bedside of the stricken President.

Strong men were horrified at the news and wept like children. Women sobbed hysterically or looked with blanched faces at one another with sorrow too deep for utterance.

Early this morning there was deep interest shown among Cantonians in the fate of the chief executive, the fellow citizen, whom they have known

MAY USE X RAYS.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—10:30 a. m.—The surgeons are talking of using the X-Ray on President McKinley to locate the bullet. If this fails, they will use the surgeon's knife to extract the ball.

Cleveland, Sept. 7.—It is now known for a certainty that Czolgosz belonged to a band of local anarchists and to a society known as the "Sila Society" that name meaning "Force." The assassin was known at the rolling mill where he worked as Fred Nieman, the name which he gave when first caught.

ASTROLOGER

Last May Notified President McKinley That He Was in Danger of Assassination.

Hoboken, N. J., Sept. 7.—Astrologer Gustave Meyer, famous for his predictions of great events on May 21, sent the following to President McKinley: "Your wife will live, but you are in danger of assassination." Secretary Cortelyou acknowledged the telegram.

Meyer said today: "At this time Mars the warlike or hostile planet is in McKinley's ascendant and the planet of Neptune denoting death or critical illness is in the eighth house. Mars is in the twelfth house meaning secret foes or assassination. If the President lives he will pass the critical period around the 26th or 27th of this month."

King Edward's Sympathy.

London, Sept. 7.—It was officially announced that King Edward has forwarded his sympathy to President McKinley.

Assassin a Coward.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 7.—Mrs. Mary Czolgosz, 12 Hosmer street, is Leon's aunt. She was a sister of the boy's mother. The two women married brothers. The aunt took the news as calmly as the stepmother did. She showed little surprise and no grief. "I have not kept track of Leon lately and know little about him," she said.

Closed to Traffic.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—Perry street between Delaware avenue and Main street, was closed to traffic this morning. Delaware avenue in front of Milburn's house and for two blocks on either side has been closed to traffic all night.

More Anarchists.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—A gang of alleged anarchists headed by one Isaak was rounded up and jailed here this morning. They said they knew Czolgosz, and that he had been in Chicago, but denied that any conspiracy had been formed to assassinate the President. They will be held for further investigation.

Fairly Comfortable Night.

Washington, Sept. 7.—At 9:20 a. m. this bulletin was received from Secretary Cortelyou:

AMERICANS WITH ONE ACCORD ABHOR THE CRIME.

Americans with one accord deplore the infamous crime of the attempted assassination of the President of the United States. The crime is not narrowed to an attempt to take the life of William McKinley. He is the Chief Executive of the nation—the President of all the people. He is the man who was holding a typical public reception, in which every American citizen was given the right to grasp him cordially by the hand, as has been the custom since the foundation of the republic. Affairs of this kind have been a feature of our free institutions, when all partisan bias was laid aside and every American took pride in such a privilege of paying his respects to the nation's Chief Executive and most exalted citizen.

This reflection causes people to seriously ponder whether such a heinous crime as the attempt upon the life of the President at Buffalo is not a stab at the very principle on which our free government is founded. And it is for this reason as well as the popular personality of President McKinley that the people, with one accord, abhor the crime and despise the wretch that committed it.

BUCYRUS

THE PLACE OF THE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN OPENING.

MAKING GREAT PREPARATIONS.

The People of the Town of Both Political Parties Taking Great Interest in the Affair, With a View to Making the Meeting a Famous Demonstration.

Columbus, O., Sept. 7.—The selection of Bucyrus as the place, and Saturday, September 28th as the day for the formal opening of the Democratic campaign in this state was a determination of the state executive committee reached in deference to the wishes of Colonel Kilbourne, who preferred Bucyrus over the other cities that were candidates for the honor. Crawford county was the scene of the early labors of James Kilbourne, the Ohio pioneer and grandfather of the present Democratic candidate for governor. The site of Bucyrus was selected partly through his labors, and as a practical surveyor he explored all the adjacent territory at an early period. The selection of Bucyrus, therefore, was a personal matter with Colonel Kilbourne, but it met with no opposition from any source and will undoubtedly be satisfactory to the party at large.

The details of the formal opening will receive the attention of the state committee from now until the event has passed into history. Thus far it has only been determined that no speakers from outside the state will be invited to take part in the Bucyrus program, the object being to stick to the text and spirit of the Democratic platform and make it purely a state affair. The list of speakers will include prominent Ohio Democrats representing all sections of the state and all shades of Democratic opinion. It will be a party love-feast, morning, afternoon and evening, and "Harmony" will be the watch-word, as it is now the guiding spirit of the campaign. The state committee anticipates an unusually large attendance, in which it is justified by the inquiries received at headquarters thus early. The railroad facilities of Bucyrus are exceptionally good and low rates will be granted on all lines. Uniformed and ununiformed Democratic clubs in all the counties are expected to turn out in greater numbers than usual. The correspondence on this subject at state headquarters is already large and indicates that the affair will be of the rousing, enthusiastic, old-fashioned kind. Local committees have been appointed at Bucyrus to look after the details and care for the immense crowds and it is confidently announced that the resources of the town for the entertainment of guests will not be overtaxed. It is a notable fact that local Republicans, as well as Democrats, are taking an active part in efforts to insure the success of the meeting and with this concert of action there is no doubt that the facilities provided will be ample.

The statement has been published that the Democratic State Committee would invite no foreign speakers to participate in the campaign. This action only applied to the opening meeting at Bucyrus.

As to whether foreign speakers will be brought into the state to take part in the campaign, the officers of the Executive committee will decide later on. The probability is that William J. Bryan will be invited, and that he will deliver two or three speeches at important points. Others will also be brought into the state to speak, including Ex-Senator David B. Hill of New York.

to the wise over in the Foraker camp that the Cleveland boss wants to use Nash's re-election as a kind of advance agent of his presidential boom, while ignoring the legislature or doing all in his power to turn it against Foraker. The result is a state of painful apathy and uncertainty among the Foraker followers. In Columbus it amounts to almost an open revolt and in close counties will have a baneful effect upon the Republican chances on the legislative ticket. It likewise affects the gubernatorial situation everywhere adversely to the whole Republican outfit. The harmony that prevails is of the brand usually found between monkeys and parrots, and the air is likely to be full of fur and feathers at any moment.

From now on Colonel Kilbourne will give his undivided attention to the campaign. The state committee is overrun with requests for him as the star attraction of local meetings, while at Republican headquarters the bulk of the correspondence consists of appeals to keep Governor Nash at home or send him "somewhere else." That is the difference in the standing of the two men in their respective parties, and it will grow, rather than diminish, as the campaign progresses.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

"Mission Style" Furniture.
The very newest thing in the way of furniture is called the "mission style" and was first suggested to the inventor by seeing an old Spanish mission chair brought from California in 1894. Its quaint outlines and interesting construction indicate the possibility of a scheme of handmade furniture built on the old early English architectural lines. Its name, "mission furniture," is aptly applied. There is a restfulness to the eye and hand in the different pieces, and, though generally straight in line, there is nothing angular in effect.

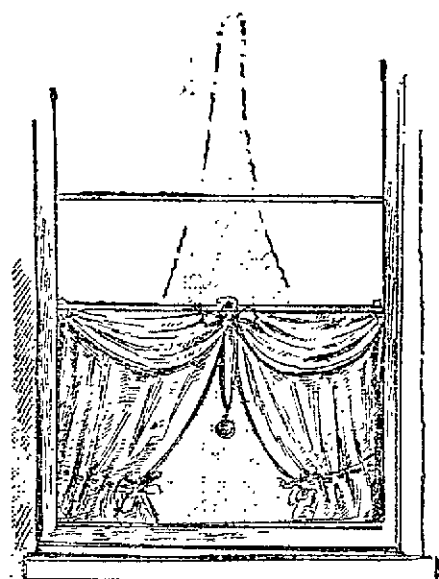

Persons accustomed to lavishly carved framework might not approve of its unconventional and simple structure. Built of native ash, stained in browns, grays and greens, it is guiltless of ornament, and no carving, not even a molding, diverts attention from the severely straight lines. There are solid looking chairs for the dining room with rush and leather bottoms, quaintly shaped writing tables for the library, cabinets for china and all sorts of comfortable rockers in which to indulge in an afternoon siesta.

Preserving Plums.

To preserve green plums allow to every pound of fruit one pound of fine granulated sugar and one gill of cold water; boil the sugar and water together for about ten minutes, skimming carefully; divide the green plums and take out the stones, putting the fruit into the syrup, and let it simmer until tender; take it off the fire, pour into some large earthen dish and let stand until the next day. In the meantime take the kernels from the stones, blanch them, and when the preserve is returned to the kettle the next day add these kernels; set over the fire and boil for ten minutes, skimming carefully. At the end of that time pack the fruit in glass jars, pour the juice over it, cool and seal.—Sallie Joy White in Woman's Home Companion.

Sash Curtains.

In many houses short window blinds are absolutely necessary, sometimes for one reason, sometimes for another. A simple and inexpensive sash curtain, which will serve both as a blind and a decoration, is shown in the illustration. It is entirely of pale green china silk, with festoons and bow and end also of silk. The casing for the ribbon to gather it up is a band of silk sewed on, and buttonholed spaces are worked in it so that the ribbon is threaded in and out. The ribbon may be the same color as the silk or a pretty contrast, and for a room in which work, either writing or needlework, has to be done it is well not to have the silk too thick or of too dark a shade, though in summer a soft leaf green looks deliciously cool and shady, but in winter's chill days something more conducive of warmth is preferable.

Waste in Cooking.

Professor Marshall, the noted English economist, estimates that $500,000,000 is spent annually by the British working classes for things that do nothing to make their lives nobler or truly happier. At the last meeting of the British association the president in an address to the economic section expressed his belief that the simple item of food waste alone would justify the above mentioned estimate. One potent cause of waste today is that very many of the women, having been practically brought up in factories, do not know how to buy economically, and are neither passable cooks nor good housekeepers. It has been estimated that in the United States the waste from had cooking alone is over $1,000,000,000 a year!—Success.

Tomato Jelly.

Tomato is one of the most wholesome of summer vegetables. The Delmonico gives directions for preparing a tomato jelly which makes a dainty salad. Care must be taken not to use too much gelatin or the salad will lose its flavor. Peel and stew the tomatoes. Sift an ounce of gelatin in half a cupful of cold water, and to a quart of hot tomato pulp and stir until dissolved. Add a tablespoonful of salt, a tablespoonful of onion juice and a tablespoonful of paprika. Strain through a fine sieve and pour into a mold to harden. This may be molded as fancy dictates. A pretty method is to mold it in tiny brick forms. Small oblong paper boxes may be used. When firm, turn out, dot with mayonnaise and serve on lettuce.

How to Remove Iron Mold.

Iron mold may be removed from linen by wetting the article, then laying it on a metal surface, while a spoonful of salts of lemon is rubbed over the surface. Rinse well, and the blemishes will at once disappear.

DETAILS

Of Terrible Affair Which Has Shocked the Entire Civilized World—Outcome Is Uncertain.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—President McKinley, who was shot and seriously wounded by a would-be assassin while holding a reception in the Temple of Music at the Pan-American exposition a few minutes after 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, lies at the residence of President Milburn of the exposition, suffering from his wounds. One shot took effect in the breast, the other in the abdomen. The first is not of a serious nature and the bullet has been extracted. The latter pierced the abdominal wall and has not been located.

It was just after the daily organ recital in the splendid Temple of Music that the attempt was made. Planned with all the diabolical ingenuity of which anarchy or nihilism is capable, the would-be assassin carried out the work without a hitch, and should his designs fail and the president survive, only to divine Providence can be attributed that beneficent result.

The president, although well guarded by United States secret service detectives, was fully exposed to such an attack as occurred. He stood at the edge of the raised dais upon which stands the great pipe organ, at the east side of the magnificent structure. He was in a cheerful mood and was enjoying to the full the hearty evidences of good will which everywhere met his gaze. Upon his right stood John G. Milburn of Buffalo, president of the Pan-American exposition, chatting with the president and introducing him to especially persons of note who approached. Upon the president's left stood Mr. Cortelyou.

It was shortly after 4 p. m. when one of the throng which surrounded the presidential party, a medium-sized man of ordinary appearance and plainly dressed in black, approached as if to greet the president. Both Secretary Cortelyou and President Milburn noticed that the man's hand was swathed in a bandage or handkerchief. Reports of bystanders differ as to which hand. He worked his way amid the stream of people up to the edge of the dais until he was within two feet of the president. President McKinley smiled and bowed and extended his hand, when suddenly the sharp crack of a revolver rang loud and clear above the hum of voices.

Caused a Commotion.

There was an instant of almost complete silence. The president stood stock still, a look of hesitancy, almost of bewilderment on his face. Then he retreated a step, while pallor began to steal over his features. The multitude, only partially aware that something serious had happened, paused in surprise, while necks were craned and all eyes turned as one to the rostrum. Then came a commotion. With the leap of a tiger three men threw themselves forward, as with one impulse, and sprang toward the would-be assassin.

Two of them were United States secret service men who were on duty to guard the president and to guard against just such a calamity as had befallen the president and the nation. The third was a bystander, a negro, who had only an instant previously grasped the hand of the president. As one man the trio hurled themselves upon the president's assailant. In a twinkling he was borne to the ground, his weapon was wrested from his hand and strong arms pinioned him down.

The crowds that a moment before had stood mute and motionless, as in bewildered ignorance of the enormity of the thing, now with a single impulse surged forward, while a hoarse cry welled up from a thousand throats and a thousand men charged forward to lay hands upon the perpetrator of the crime.

President McKinley, after the first shock of the assault, not retreated a step, then, as the detectives leaped upon his assailant, he turned, walked steadily to a chair and seated himself, at the same time removing his hat and bowing his head in his hands. In an instant Secretary Cortelyou and President Milburn were at his side. His waistcoat was hurriedly opened the president meantime admonishing those about him to remain calm and telling them not to be alarmed. "But you are wounded," cried his secretary, "let me examine."

"No, I think not," answered the president. "I am not badly hurt, I assure you." Nevertheless his outer garments were hastily loosened, and when a trickling stream of crimson was seen to wind its way down his breast, spreading its stain over the white surface of the linen, their worst fears were confirmed.

The president's assailant in the meantime had been hustled to the rear of the building by exposition guards, where he was held while the building was cleared, and later he was turned over to Superintendent Bull of the Buffalo police department, who took the prisoner to No. 13 police station and afterward to police headquarters. As soon as the crowd in the Temple of Music had been dispersed sufficiently the president was removed in the automobile ambulance and taken to the exposition hospital, where an examination was made. The best medical skill was summoned and within a brief period a number of Buffalo's best known practitioners were at the president's side.

On the Operating Table.

The president retained the full exercise of his faculties until placed on the operating table and subjected to an anæsthetic. Upon the first examination it was ascertained that one bullet had taken effect in the right breast just below the nipple, causing a comparatively harmless wound. The other took effect in the abdomen about four inches below the left nipple, four inches to the left of the navel and about on a level with it.

Upon arrival at the exposition hospital the second bullet was probed for. The walls of the abdomen were opened but the ball was not located. The incision was hastily closed, and after a hasty consultation it was decided to remove the patient to the home of President Milburn. This was done, the automobile ambulance being used for the purpose.

Arriving at the Milburn residence, all persons outside the medical attendants, nurses and officials immediately concerned were excluded, and the task of probing for the bullet which was lodged in the abdomen was begun by Dr. Roswell Parke. When the news of the crime was telephoned to the home of President Milburn, where Mrs. McKinley was resting, immediate steps were taken to spare her the shock of a premature statement of the occurrence before the true condition of the president should be ascertained. Guards were stationed and no one was permitted to approach the house. When it was decided to remove the president from the exposition hospital to the Milburn residence, the news was broken to Mrs. McKinley as gently as possible. She bore the shock remarkably well and displayed the utmost fortitude. At the Milburn house telegrams poured in by the hundreds, and Secretary Cortelyou was kept busy replying to them.

Report of Physicians.

The following bulletin was issued by the physicians. "The president was shot about 4 o'clock. One bullet struck him on the upper portion of the breast bone, glancing and not penetrating; the second bullet penetrated the abdomen five inches below the left nipple and one and one-half inches to the left of the median line. The abdomen was opened through the line of the bullet wound. It was found that the bullet had penetrated the stomach. The opening in the front wall of the stomach was carefully closed with silk stitches, after which a search was made for a hole in the back wall of the stomach. This was found and also closed in the same way. The further course of the bullet could not be discovered, although careful search was made. The abdominal wound was closed without drainage. No injury to the intestines or other abdominal organs was discovered. The patient stood the operation well, pulse of good quality, rate of 130; condition at the conclusion of operation was gratifying. The result cannot be foretold. His condition at present justifies hope of recovery."

At police headquarters the crowds were met by a strong cordon of police, which was drawn up across the pavement on Pearl street, and admittance was denied to any but officials authorized to take part in the examination of the prisoner. In a few minutes the crowds had grown from tens to hundreds and these in turn quickly swelled to thousands, until the street was completely blocked with a mass of humanity. It was at this juncture that some one raised the cry of "Lynch him!" Like a flash the cry was taken up, and the whole crowd, as if ignited by the single match thus applied, recoiled the cry, "Lynch him! Hang him!" Closer the crowd surged; denser the throng became as new arrivals swelled each moment the swaying multitude. The situation was becoming critical, when suddenly the big doors were flung open and a squad of reserves advanced with solid front, drove the crowd back from the curb, then across the street, and gradually succeeded in dispersing them from about the entrance to the station. By this time there were probably 50,000 people assembled in the vicinity. The crowd was so great that it became necessary to rope off the entire street in front of police headquarters.

ASSASSIN

Calmly Admitted That He is an Anarchist—Signed Confession—Step-mother Interviewed Today.

Cleveland, Sept. 7.—Leon Czolgosz, the assassin, has been positively identified. He lives at No. 306 Fleet street, with his father, Paul Czolgosz. He is 25 years old. His step-mother said this morning: "Leon has been sick for three years. He worked in the wire fence department of the Cleveland rolling mills. Two weeks ago he wrote us from a town in Indiana that he was going far away and we would never see him again. He was a timid, sickly boy. He can read and write. He never had any associates here. He liked to sit by himself and mope. He has one brother, a soldier, in the Philippines."

A Signed Confession.

Buffalo, Sept. 7.—Leon Czolgosz, the self-confessed assassin, has signed a confession covering six pages of foolscap, which states that he is an anarchist and that he became an enthusiastic member of that body through the influence of Emma Goldman, whose writings he had read and whose lectures he had listened to. He denies having any confederate and says that he decided on the assassination of the president three days ago, and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He has seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland, and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Hosmer street and Ackland avenue, which adjoin. Some of them are butchers and others in different trades. Czolgosz does not appear in the least degree uneasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced by his attention to Emma Goldman's lectures and writings to decide that the present form of government in this country was all wrong, and he thought the best way to end it was by killing the president. He shows no sign of insanity, but is very reticent about much of his career. While acknowledging himself an anarchist, he does not state to what branch of the organization he belonged.

Czolgosz has a father living on a farm about eight miles from Cleveland. He is unmarried himself. He wears the button and claims to be a member of the Golden Eagles.

STEPS TAKEN

To Provide For Future of the Executive Branch of the United States Government.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Officials here have taken steps to provide for the future of the executive branch of the government. It is painfully realized that, even under the most favorable conditions, the president's injuries are of such a character as to make it almost certain that he can not undertake for a long time to discharge the duties of chief executive, even in the most formal way. Every member of the cabinet able to travel speedily at once to Buffalo, and there a cabinet council will be held to decide upon the course to be followed by the executive branch. Vice President Roosevelt is in Vermont, this being the information furnished by his relatives here, and of course will hold himself in readiness to do whatever is necessary and to meet the obligations imposed upon the vice president by the constitution of the United States. There is contained in paragraph 6, section 1, article 2, the following words: "In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice president."

COMMENT

By Prominent Persons on the Attempted Assassination—The News at Canton and Elsewhere.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 7.—Following the receipt of the news of the Buffalo tragedy, W. J. Bryan sent a brief message to President McKinley expressing his concern. Mr. Bryan gave out the following statement: "The attempted assassination of the president is a shock to the entire country, and (Continued on page 5.)"

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held Friday night, the principal business of which was to select a successor to Assistant Principal F. C. Donecker.

Those present at the meeting were Messrs. Christian Beatty, Fulton, Hester, Hight and Keller.

After some discussion of the matter Mr. R. O. Austin, of Morris, Mich., was elected Assistant Principal.

The course of study for the High School, as revised by Superintendent Townsend, to be under the new Principal, E. P. Childs was adopted. The text book on Physics, by Henderson and Woodhull, of the twentieth century series by D. Appleton & Co., was adopted in place of Avery's Physics.

The salaries of the janitors of the various buildings were revised and slightly increased.

The Supply Committee was authorized to contract with the Natural Gas Company for fuel gas in the Superintendents office and in stoves of the basement of the High school, and also for natural gas lights.

Prof. R. O. Austin, who, at the meeting of the Board of Education held on Friday evening was elected Assistant Principal of the Newark High school, comes to Newark highly recommended as a gentleman and a scholar. He is a graduate of Michigan Normal School and of the University of Michigan, and has had about six years experience as a teacher. Mr. Austin is a young man about 22 years of age and is unmarried.

An Ohio Reunion.

A notice recently came to the Advocate of the annual "Ohio Society Picnic," an event of importance occurring at Knoxville, Tenn. "The Ohio Society" as its name would indicate, is an order composed of Buckeyes, who, though living in the sunny South, cherish recollections of their native state, which are revived each year by a picnic and a program. The affair this year is the third one which has been held and was quite elaborate. A trained choir was in attendance, and after a business session had been held speeches and music of a most pleasing and appropriate nature were enjoyed. What makes the matter of special interest to Newark people is the fact that the "orator of the day" was the Rev. Dr. Sutherland, formerly pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of this city. The Knoxville Journal and Tribune mentioned his address as follows: "The president then introduced the orator of the day, Rev. Dr. Sutherland. The doctor entertained the assembly with one of the most pleasing and instructive discourses ever listened to by a Tennessee audience." Surely these are words of warm admiration which Dr. Sutherland's many friends in Newark will sincerely appreciate.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from Pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of Consumption. After taking she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Hall's drug store.

STEEL STRIKE

New York, Sept. 7.—The World, in an article on the steel strike, says that there is strong hope for a settlement of the strike. It adds: "The hope for a favorable outcome was increased when President Schwab received a telephone call from Mr. Shaffer, who said that he desired to speak with him personally. The details of what passed between the two could not be learned, but it was reported that Mr. Shaffer had asked for another conference between the steel trust officers and the Amalgamated board, and that the board would come here for this purpose."

Negotiations Off.

Pittsburg, Sept. 7.—In spite of the fact that the terms offered by the United States Steel corporation for a settlement of the steel workers' strike were limited to Friday night, the executive board of the Amalgamated Association adjourned without reaching a definite decision. The peace movement is regarded as practically dead. In the offices of the Carnegie building it was stated that the situation was simply that the Amalgamated Association had rejected the terms offered by President Schwab and negotiations had terminated. The officials of the constituent companies had been instructed to start up all of the plants as soon as possible, and with non-union men.

Revolt in Venezuela.

Colon, Colombia, Sept. 7.—The revolution in Venezuela is extending over the whole country. President Castro is reviving the recruiting movement, and has concentrated troops in the states of Tachira and Zulia. # SYSTEMIC CATARRH

And Grip Prostration Afflicts the People All Summer.

UNITED STATES MARSHAL SIMMONS.

Hon. F. Simmons, United States Marshal, Mobile, Alabama, speaks in high praise of the merits of Peruna. In a letter written from Washington, D.C., he says:

"After having used Peruna for a short time I find that it is the most excellent remedy for the grip and catarrh ever prepared. I can heartily recommend it to any one." Yours sincerely, F. Simmons.

Even a slight attack of la grippe deranged. Every function is disturbed. Appetite and digestion demoralized. Creeping rigors, hot flashes, cold sweats and fitful sleep linger to make life almost unbearable.

It is this condition that Dr. Hartman calls systemic catarrh. The whole system is saturated with catarrh. This discovery marked an important advance in the history of medical science. The medical profession had long been groping to discover the meaning of the stubborn and distressing after-effects of la grippe. All remedies seemed alike inadequate.

As soon as Dr. Hartman announced that it was his belief that the after-effects of la grippe was simply systemic catarrh, a great advance was made in the treatment of these cases. It now only remained to find a reliable remedy for systemic catarrh.

Here a new difficulty arose. Catarrh had been regarded by many physicians as a local disease and treated solely by local remedies. Such physicians knew of no systemic remedy for catarrh.

Other physicians regarded catarrh as a blood disease and had been in the habit of treating it with blood medicines, which could be of no possible use in systemic catarrh.

For a time Peruna enjoyed the distinction of being the only systemic catarrh remedy known. It was not even claimed by anyone that there was another remedy for this exasperating condition.

Since then, however, a great many remedies have been proposed for systemic catarrh, and a great deal of valuable time wasted in experimenting with other remedies. But it still remains true that Peruna is the only specific remedy for the after-effects of la grippe. The demand for this remedy in consequence of the present epidemic of la grippe, is enormous.

Mr. J. P. Lowery, proprietor City Hotel Albany, Texas, says: "Being advised to try Peruna for la grippe and asthma, I did so with good results. I had been feeling very unwell for a long time, and had asthma quite bad till I came West, when I got better of the asthma, but not well. I tried a great many remedies for it, but nothing was able to cure me. I took three bottles of Peruna and I am happy to say that it is the best medicine I ever used. I am satisfied that Peruna is a good medicine, and as such have commended it to several of my friends with good results. It is seldom I give a testimonial, but I think this due you. I hope others may be benefited through you and your medicines."

Every one should read Dr. Hartman's latest lecture on la grippe. This lecture will be sent free by The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio.

The A. R. Bremer Co

CHALLENGES THE CITIZENS OF NEWARK.

AND THE RESULT TO BE PUBLISHED IN THIS PAPER.

This important challenge is not only to the citizens of Newark, but to the entire civilized world. The problem will be nestled in the outcome of this investigation to prove the great merits of their already famous discovery. The offer made by the A. R. Bremer Company in their challenge above alluded to is a plainly worded one. They assert that their discovery, Coke Dandruff Cure, will positively cure the most stubborn and common of all troubles, dandruff and itching hair, which 90 per cent of the people are annoyed with.

It is thought that the best possible way to publicly determine the merit of Coke Dandruff Cure is to give away to all those interested in this matter a sample bottle and to have it done in such an open manner that none can question the honesty of the test.

A large number of samples have been sent to the City drug store and will be given out to all those troubled with dandruff, itching hair, or any diseases of the scalp. Apply today between 9 a. m. and 6 p. m.

There will also be given to each applicant for a free sample a little newspaper treating on troubles of the hair and scalp which sets out in a clear plain manner just such information as you want to know.

Bear in mind the free distribution at the City drug store will begin this morning, at 9 o'clock and end Monday at 9 p. m.

Admiral George Dewey writes: "I have used Coke Dandruff Cure for the past year and found it an excellent preparation."

AMUSEMENTS.

The musical features with "Uncle Josh Spruceby" this year include two bands and an orchestra of twelve solo musicians. At the noon-day concert a program of popular and high-grade selections are rendered by the combined bands—and these concerts have become very popular and in many attract much attention and comment. The orchestra between the acts discourses a pleasing program and is one of the many attractive features with the show. For the first time this company appears at popular prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. It goes without saying that a jammed house is assured. "Uncle Josh" appears at the Auditorium on Monday night, Sept. 9.

There is only one Wallace Show, and the superiority and novelty of its performance is such a contrast with other shows that it is never forgotten. At Newark, Monday, Sept. 9.

The Bowery Bulequers of this season is bigger and better than ever before. This show is always a crowd and the acknowledged leader of its kind, in the bill that they present this season is like a measure heaped up, packed down, and overflowing. The first part is an exciting skit on the Pan-American at Buffalo. It is the real live Exposish, full of bright business and with a strong flavor of the mid-way. The olio presents some strong acts each a sky-scraper in its line, such as Yutakane, the beautiful Indian princess, Gilbert and Gold, the Taylor trio, Henshaw and Franciella, Neve Aymer, Hall and Herbert, Nacirema Twin midgetts, Minnie Gilbert, Robinson Sisters, and Chuck Conners. Chuck is the wonder upon whom the mantle of Steve Brodie has fallen, and from the present outlook he is the last of his kind. It is not likely there will ever be another like the Mayors of Chinatown, the renowned Chuck. In the burlesque that closes the show entitled "Slumming", which as the title indicates lets you on the inside of the Bowery and East Side of New York. All the company are in it, 25 hand-some girls, comedians, vaudevillians, and Chuck and his chums. Chuck leads because he is the guy dats up to every ting, "this slumming" rolls high, you will like it. The music of the show is catchy, the songs are new, scenery great, costumes rich, everything is the best that brains and money can procure. At Newark Auditorium Thursday, September 12.

Mrs. Austin has just come to town.

SPECIAL TO YOU.

What ever you do don't forget that Sunday, September 15 is the grand closing day at our own Idlewild park, at which time fireworks will go off, a balloon will go up and the "merry" will go round, with base ball, basketball, shooting gallery, bowling alleys, switchback railway, boating, bathing and two performances, evening and afternoon, at the theatre. ## NARROW ESCAPE

OF PAN HANDLE BRAKEMAN F. O. BROWN FROM INJURY.

Slipped and His Leg Was Caught Between Pilot and Ties—Taken to Uhrichsville, O.

F. O. Brown, a Pan-Handle brakeman, met with a severe accident about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, and narrowly escaped losing his left leg.

He was breaking for H. C. Evans on the east-bound local, and there was some switching to at this point. When between Fourth and Fifth streets, Brown went to step on the pilot of the engine, when he slipped and his leg was caught between the pilot and tie. He was picked up and carried in to Frank Steinman's saloon. Drs. Larimore, Robb and Smith being summoned.

An examination showed that the ankle and leg were severely pinched and sprained but no bones were broken.

Mr. Brown is about 28 years old and lives in Uhrichsville, where he was taken on train 32.

Times must be pretty hard when a man can't even collect his thoughts.

THE NEWS

Of the Attempted Assassination as Received and Published in Newark—Universal Sympathy.

The Advocate fully appreciates the many kind words that have been said about its enterprise in publishing three editions of the paper giving the news of the attempted assassination of President William McKinley.

The first bulletin announcing the shooting of the President was received at this office at 4 o'clock (the shooting having occurred shortly after 4 o'clock eastern time), and within twenty minutes the Advocate's new web press was printing and folding papers at the rate of 5500 an hour.

The Advocate's first edition containing the first announcement was delivered to all the regular subscribers of the paper and copies of the edition, the first out in the city, were sold like hot cakes about town. At 5:30 p. m. the second edition appeared and the supply was quickly exhausted.

At 7:30 p. m. the Advocate issued a third edition giving the details of the attempted assassination and printing by far the most complete account of any evening paper circulated in the city. Special editions of the Columbus papers brought over on the evening trains contained less news than appeared in the Advocate's second edition.

The Advocate notified the Scripps-McRae press association to rush all important bulletins and sent a message to the Union Associated Press of New York to send bulletins up to midnight. As they were received they were posted in the Advocate's windows where hundreds of people saw them.

Besides the regular telegraphic press reports that are received every day the Advocate has today received many special bulletins direct from Buffalo and these have been posted promptly.

The Advocate is gratified that it has been able to so completely and promptly furnish the people with the facts connected with the lamentable affair.

The Advocate joins the nation in lamenting this calamity to the American people and trusts that President McKinley's recovery may be speedy and complete.

Everybody was and is interested in the news from Buffalo. Hundreds have stood in front of the bulletins at the Advocate office and it has kept one person busy answering telephone calls making inquiry about the President's condition. Universal sympathy is expressed and there is a unanimous hope that Mr. McKinley will recover from the blow struck by the would-be assassin.

Miss Glenna Cramer has returned home after a three-week visit with friends and relatives in Columbus.

Miss Hattie Van Wormer has returned home after a few days visit in Columbus with friends and relatives.

CONDITION SERIOUS.

he and his wife are the recipients of universal sympathy. The dispatches say that the shot was fired by an insane man, and it is hoped that this is true, for while it is a terrible thing for a president to be the victim of the act of a maniac, it would be even worse for him to be fired upon by a sane person prompted by malice or revenge. In a republic, where the people elect their officials and can remove them, there can be no excuse for a resort to violence. If our presidents were in constant fear of plots and conspiracies we would soon sink to the level of those nations in which force is the only weapon of the government and the only weapon of the government's enemies.

Senator Hanna.

Cleveland, Sept. 7.—When convinced that the news from Buffalo was true, Senator Hanna said "I can not say anything about it. It is too horrible to even contemplate, to think that such a thing could happen to so splendid a man as President McKinley and at this time and upon such an occasion. It is horrible. McKinley never had any fear of danger from that source. Of course, I never talked to him upon such a subject, but I know he never even dreamed of anything like this happening. I can not be interviewed upon this. It is too awful."

Roosevelt's Sympathy.

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 7.—Vice President Roosevelt, on his arrival here from Isle La Motte, started at once for Buffalo. He said "I am too shocked and grieved to express my feelings." Later when a bulletin was handed him saying that President McKinley's wounds were not fatal, the vice president sent word to the gathering. "Like all our people and like the whole civilized world, you will rejoice to hear this good news."

Cullom's Strong Words.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—United States Senator Cullom who was in the city, was greatly affected when he heard the news. "I can hardly believe the announcement," he said after a time. "That was a dastardly attack and the man who committed the act should have been punished right there. It is the most horrible crime imaginable. The nation could hardly afford to lose President McKinley, and it would be awful to see a man of so many admirable qualities cut down thus at the height of his career. He is a great man and a great president. He is nearer to the hearts of the great body of the people than any other ruler since Lincoln."

Cleveland on the Shooting.

Winstead, Conn., Sept. 7.—Former President Grover Cleveland was fishing at Darling lake, in Tyringham, Mass., when he received the news of the shooting of President McKinley. He at once started for the shore in order to hear more details in regard to the matter and anxiously asked for the latest advices from Mr. McKinley's bedside. Mr. Cleveland was horrified at the news and said: "With all American citizens, I am greatly shocked at this news. I can not conceive of a motive. It must have been the act of a crazy man."

In New-York.

New York, Sept. 7.—This city was stunned when the news came that President McKinley had been shot. As a rule the people on the streets were palpably feeling more deeply than they had the power to express. As a consequence there was dearth of the demonstrations which accompanied the announcement that President Garfield had been shot, or the outbreak of wrath and deep sorrow, which was a feature of the assassination of President Lincoln. That the mass of the people was keenly interested became manifest during the evening, when the bulletin boards became a center of interest for thousands on upper Broadway, in Harlem and at the newspaper offices in Park Row. The crowds which gathered about these news centers were in some cases as numerous as are the crowds on the occasion of national elections. They were almost stoical in their interest.

News at Canton.

Canton, O., Sept. 7.—The news of the attempted assassination of President McKinley spread like wildfire throughout the city. It was a great shock to Cantonites. The first news was given to Mrs. M. C. Barber, Mrs. McKinley's sister. Not long after the first reports received they began to gather in small companies in front of the McKinley residence in North Market street. Before many minutes had elapsed a surging crowd of anxious persons gathered and many ventured up to the door of the McKinley home to ask the attendants what was the latest news received. A spirit of gloom hangs over the entire city. Strong men with tears in their eyes stand on the street discussing the awful affair, and eagerly watch for new bulletins and fresh editions of the papers.

Beveridge Departs.

Manilla, Sept. 7.—Brigadier General Noble and Senator Beveridge of Indiana left here on board the transport Thomas. The senator, for a fortnight past, has been closely studying local conditions. He warmly commends the civil and military administrations, the progress which they have both made and their union of action in securing a peaceful termination of the troubles, which he considers is now in sight.

ANARCHIST

Plot Was the Attempt on the Life of President McKinley—So Assert the Police Officials.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Six men were placed under arrest in this city on the charge of being implicated in the plot to assassinate President McKinley. The men were all found in one house at the corner of St. Johns place and Carroll avenue, on the west side of the city. The arrests were made on information from the police officials of Buffalo, who said that the men were members of a society to which the assailant of the president belonged, and that they had knowledge of the plot. The police have not yet given out the names of the men taken into custody, but one of the men is known to be Abraham Isakk, president of an organization which bears the name of the Free Society. He was formerly editor of a paper of anarchistic principles, which bore the name of The Firebrand. The information received by the local police from Buffalo is to the effect that the plot to kill the president was originated among the members of the Free Society, and that the Buffalo prisoner was chosen by the lot to commit the crime.

At the National Capital.

Washington, Sept. 7.—The news of the shooting of President McKinley caused a tremendous sensation here. So frequent have been rumors of this sort, often put afloat in recent years for stock-jobbing purposes, that the general disposition at first was to withhold full acceptance of the story of the news, but when it was confirmed a feeling of deep gloom and profound sorrow spread over the city. For McKinley's delightful personality had endeared him to the citizens of Washington, apart from the official class, in a degree that rarely has been equaled. It was some time before the full force of the blow was appreciated, the people were stunned and they could not respond at once and fully comprehend the extent of the great disaster that had fallen upon the country and themselves.

British Sympathy.

London, Sept. 7.—All the papers publish long accounts from Buffalo describing the attempt upon President McKinley's life, dispatches from abroad regarding the reception of the news, which excites renewed and anxious discussion of means to prevent anarchist outrages, references to previous attempts and the urgent need of the adoption of better police precautions than ever in republics and the freest countries. The Daily Telegraph says editorially: "The most unfeigned and heartfelt sympathy will go forth from every family in Christendom to Mrs. McKinley in this hour of deepest sorrow and trial. Americans will acquit us of all suspicion of insincerity when we claim that the blow will be felt with almost equal severity in Great Britain as in the United States."

Consternation in Paris.

Paris, Sept. 7.—The news of the attempt on President McKinley's life created a feeling of consternation in Paris. Mr. McKinley was considered the last person in the world in danger of assassination. The United States is sure of receiving every mark of sympathy from Frenchmen of all shades of opinion, as the president was always considered a friend of France. The Gaulois says: "We feel the necessity of expressing to the great people of the United States, to whom so many ties unite us, our sympathy with them and horror at the crime that has cast them into mourning, but the great faith of this grand people in God will enable them again to recover themselves and pursue the course of their destinies."

THE PROLIFIC FLY.

To Lessen the Pest All Organic Refuse Should Be Buried.

Flies multiply at a prodigious rate. Given a temperature sufficiently high to hatch eggs, their numbers are only limited by the amount of food available for them. Linnæus is credited with saying that three meat flies, by reason of their rapid multiplication, would consume a dead horse quicker than would a lion, and the fact that certain diptera having some outward resemblance to the honeybee lay their eggs in the dead carcasses of animals probably led Samson and Virgil to make erroneous statements with regard to the genesis of honey and the manufacture of bees. The breeding of "gentles" for ground bait is an industry the practices of which could probably give much information as to the nicety of choice exercised by flies in selecting material for feeding and egg laying. According to Packard, the house fly makes selection of horse dung by preference for depositing, and as each female lays about 120 eggs and the cycle of changes from egg to fly is completed in less than three weeks it seems probable that a female fly might have some 25,000,000 descendants in the course of a hot summer. Other varieties of flies multiply, I believe, still more rapidly.

As flies multiply upon and in organic refuse of every kind, it is obvious that the sooner such refuse is placed where it cannot serve for the breeding and hatching of flies the more likely is the plague of flies to be lessened. The most commonly available method for the bestowal of organic refuse is burial. The egg laying of flies in dead carcasses commences at the very instant of death or even before death in the case of enfeebled animals.—Lancet.

MISTAKES TO AVOID.

An English paper gives what it terms "thirteen mistakes of life." It is a great mistake to set up our-own standard of right and wrong and judge people accordingly.

To measure the enjoyment of others by our own.

To expect uniformity of opinion in this world.

To look for judgment and experience in youth.

To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.

To look for perfection in our own actions.

To worry ourselves and others with what cannot be remedied.

Not to yield in immaterial matters.

Not to alleviate all that needs alleviation as far as lies in our power.

Not to make allowances for the infirmities of others.

To consider everything impossible that we cannot perform.

To believe only what our finite minds can grasp.

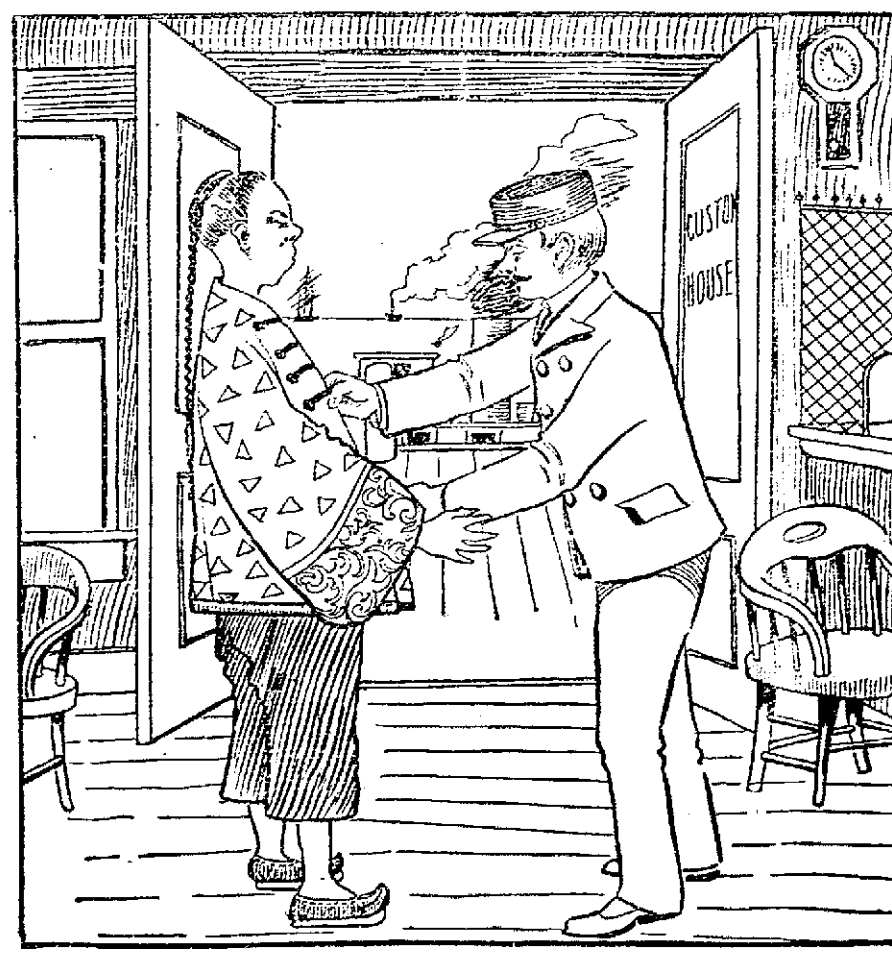

To expect to be able to understand everything.

The Evolution of Warships.

A man need not be a scholar to be an inventor. One of the most successful aeronauts of old times who had made a study of aerial currents and the management of balloons once delivered an address in which he referred to "the macaw" as "the largest bird that ever flew," and he also remarked that "the mental faculties of a man's mind is so constructed as to bring things down to a pin's point." He also referred to the currents of air as stretchings, meaning strains, and yet he was one of the foremost balloonists of his time.

He was an inventor also of many useful things and was the first man in the country to suggest an ironclad man-of-war with slanting sides. He built a miniature vessel on this plan of sheet iron, placing it in the water and fired musket balls at it at short range. Every ball glanced off. The Merrimac was built on a similar plan, and from that humble beginning the evolution or revolution in naval architecture took its start.—Baltimore Sun.

WORKING IN PUBLIC.

Show Window Artisans Can Command Good Remuneration.

A Broadway shoe manufacturer was asked what method of advertising he found most profitable.

"Placing my men near the window," he said, "so they can work in view of the public. I don't know of anything that catches the attention of the passer-by more quickly than the sight of a demonstrator sitting close to the window running a machine for dear life.

"Manufacturers of all kinds of goods have adopted this plan. Waistmakers put their most skilled workers on exhibition to show how the finest garments are cut and sewed. Clear manufacturers take the public into their confidence and let them see the process of rolling as performed by the cleverest hands.

Men who deal in mechanical contrivances have found that it pays to have at least one machine set up near a window so the crowd outside may observe the intricacy of its parts and the rapidity of its action. Jewelers have stationed their most expert lapidaries within view of the street that possible customers may see how precious stones are cut and polished and set.

"It isn't everybody who can work in public. It takes a person with good strong nerves and concentration of thought to do difficult work in a show window. I have men in my employ who are excellent workers, but they get flustered when subjected to unusual surveillance and ruin everything they put their hands to. I have tried some of them as window operators, but they can't get used to it.

"A man who can run a machine at full tilt or paint a picture or fry pancakes or iron a shirt in the full gaze of the public eye and not lose his head is an artist and worth several dollars more a week to his employer than the more modest individual. And he gets it too."—New York Sun.

Taking Sunday Collections.

An old and not yet obsolete mode of taking a collection in a Scotch church is by means of a ladle—a small wooden box at the end of a straight wooden shaft about four and a half feet long, the top of the box being sufficiently open to receive contributions of money.

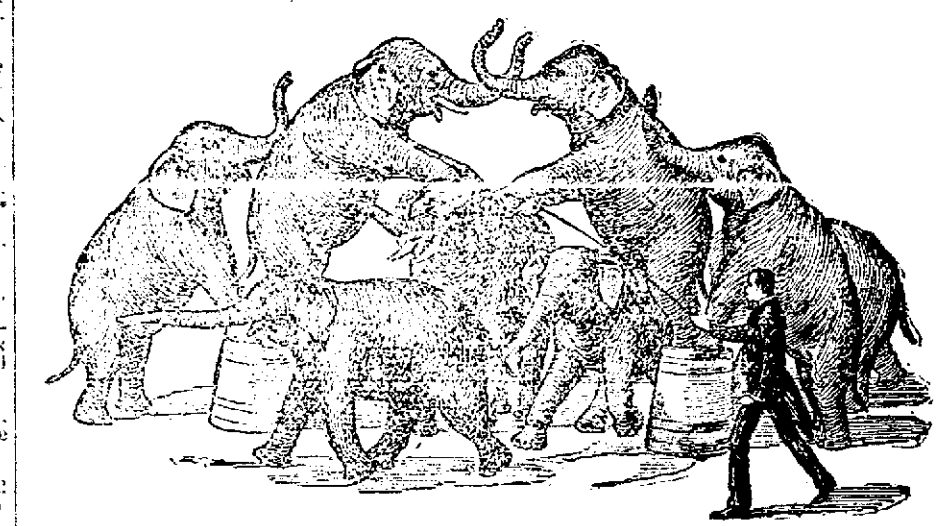

For all special collections this was the usual mode in the chief churches of Edinburgh when I was a boy at school there 50 years ago, but it has gradually gone out of fashion and is not often to be seen nowadays.

For ordinary Sunday collections the general custom has been to have a metal plate or basin on a small table at the church entrance superintended by an elder—a mode which was often called the brod. When ladies are used, they are handed round the congregation by elders after the sermon or after the last psalm, and the common Scotch phrase to "lift" the collection may have come from this custom.—Notes and Queries.

RAIL SWERVED

AND STRIKING FLOWERS, BADLY INJURED HIM.

Young Man on B. & O. Work Train
Was Probably Fatally Hurt at Pleasant Valley.

Charles Flowers a young man employed on the B. & O. work train, was probably fatally injured while working at Pleasant Valley Friday afternoon.

The men were engaged in unloading rails, as many as could taking hold of the rail to lift it to the edge of the car.
It was then the custom to raise it about shoulder high and then throw it over the side of the car to the ground.

Flowers was at one end of the rail, and through a mistake the men at the other end let their end go too soon.
The rail swerved and Flowers was struck and his left side terribly lacer-ated. The wound was through the muscles and the heart was laid bare,
the beats being plainly discernible.

The young man was taken to his home in Clay Lick and Drs. Knauss of Newark and Pastal of Black Hand, attended him.

The wound is very serious and reports from Clay Lick say that the injured man is not expected to live.

GAS PIPES

Being Laid From McKean Township to Carry Fuel Gas to the Everett Factory.

A large force of workmen has been busily engaged for some time past in laying the pipes to convey natural gas from the wells in McKean township to the E. H. Everett & Co.'s works in this city. The pipes are now laid from McKean township down to within a mile north of Newark, and the present rate of progress will be long until the gas can be used.

Love is blind, and that may be the reason it makes spectacles of its de-announcements for this medicine are not dependent on the testimony of the people so far away that they cansubstantiated. It's the simple state-words of the relieved.

Mr. A. Moore of No. 333 Locust

MISS THORBURN'S DEATH.

Miss Isabella Thorburn died September 3, of cholera in Lucknow, India.
Miss Thorburn was sixty years of age, and went to India as a Methodist missionary in 1869. She was a sister of Bishop Thorburn. Miss Thorburn was one of the founders of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, and was the first missionary sent out from Ohio by that organization. She was also the founder of the self supporting school for native girls at Lucknow. A singular coincidence of her death is that she passed away from earth on the very day set apart by the Methodist calendar for prayers for her and his assistants.

PARTIES IN A DIVORCE SUIT AT ZANESVILLE.

Phoebe Pomar Wants Divorce and Alimony from Gabriel Pomar—The Allegations Made.

Zanesville, O., Sept. 7.—A suit was filed in common pleas court Friday afternoon by Phoebe Pomar, asking a divorce and alimony from Gabriel J.
Pomar. They were married in Sales-ville and there are no children. The grounds are extreme cruelty and gross neglect. It is charged that shortly after the marriage, the defendant returned to St. Augustine, Fla., where he had previously been and remained there for five months. During this time it is alleged, he claimed that he was unmarried, and that he waited upon and gave social, ardent attention to divers women and also that he gave out and caused to be published, that he was engaged to the plaintiff, giving the impression that he was not married.

The plaintiff, hearing of the state of affairs, went to St. Augustine and her husband succeeded in explaining the affair satisfactorily at the time, but she has since concluded that he did purposely give out the impression that he was unmarried.

It is further claimed that the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty toward plaintiff since January 1, 1899.

They went to Salesville, O., in July 1899, where plaintiff secured a position in the ice cream parlors and was obliged to support her husband who was fully able to work.

In October he secured a place as brakeman with the B. & O. railroad, staying in Newark. He held this job until January 1900, but contributed nothing to the support of the plaintiff, who on the contrary, had furnished him with $25 and a suit of clothes
when he first went to Newark.

In March 1900, while living with the plaintiff at her mother's home, the defendant told the plaintiff that he was going back to St. Augustine, Fla., and forthwith went, leaving nothing to provide for the plaintiff. Plaintiff took a course in the Zanesville Business college, in shorthand, and is now employed at $7 a week.

She asks for a divorce and restitution to her maiden name of Phoebe Mendenhall, and for alimony.
Clarence S. Vandenberg is plaintiff's attorney.

Coming To Idlewild.

One of the largest excursions to Newark this season will be run from Newcomerstown on Friday next. The outing is given by the Band and Pipe Mills employees and the business men of that city. The excursionists will disembark at Williams street, in the West End, and will be escorted to Idlewild Park by Fletcher's Imperial Band, now playing at the Park. Everybody is welcome, and it is hoped that a big crowd of the hospitable people of Newark will be on hand to give the excursionists a cordial welcome.

Stood Death Off.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger.
He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints;
